

The Lake Winnipeg Indigenous Collective is hiring!

News
LWF
August 8, 2016
0

Apply to become the Lake Winnipeg Indigenous Collective Coordinator!

In partnership with the Lake Winnipeg Indigenous Collective (LWIC), the Lake Winnipeg Foundation is seeking a relationship-driven project manager to support the dynamic growth of a First Nations collective dedicated to protecting the health of our sacred waters and restoring traditional livelihoods. Based out of Winnipeg, this position includes travel to various Lake Winnipeg Indigenous communities.

The function of this position is to:

- Provide administrative and facilitative support to advance the development of the Lake Winnipeg Indigenous Collective, including the planning and coordination of LWIC gatherings, meetings and projects
- Identify and secure diverse funding sources to support the long-term sustainability of LWIC

Full job description is below:

LWIC Job Posting August 2016.pdf

 Download (285.15 KB)

Please submit a cover letter and resume to LWF's Programs Director (programs@lakewinnipegfoundation.org) by 4 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 22.

Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. Thank you for your interest!

Tags:

LWF
2016
LWIC