Created in the 1940s and 50s by celebrated artist Henry Eric Bergman (1893 - 1958), these vintage wood engraving prints are a piece of local art history that depict the unique ecological beauty in Manitoba's backyard. Featuring plants found within Lake Winnipeg's watershed, each print comes mounted on an 8 x 10, acid-free, archival mat - all that's missing is the frame! Prints can be picked up at LWF's office or shipped to you within Canada for an additional $15 - remember to add shipping costs to your cart when placing your order online.

We're grateful for the support we receive from local partners who choose to donate a portion of proceeds raised through the sale of select merchandise. Learn more below!

JBJD + LWF Collection

Local jewellery designer Johanna Brierley has launched a new collection in support of a healthy Lake Winnipeg. The 10 pieces in the collection were created using "lucky stones" from the beaches of Lake Winnipeg, discovered and generously donated by local lake-lovers. All proceeds from this collection are being donated to LWF. The JBD + LWF Collection is available for purchase online until Dec. 31, 2021 at johannabrierley.com

Hilary Druxman for LWF

Local jeweller Hilary Druxman has done it again! Designed as part of her popular philanthropic collection in celebration of our 10th anniversary, this handcrafted sterling silver necklace was inspired by the unique natural beauty of driftwood. Wear it on its own or as the perfect companion piece to our signature shell necklace. (It also makes a great gift!) Each purchase supports our mission to restore and protect the health of Lake Winnipeg. Get your necklace at the LWF office (just call or email first!), at LWF outreach events, at Hilary Druxman's Winnipeg boutique or online.

zealousdecor for LWF

Manitoba company zealousdecor specializes in modern, laser-cut wooden home décor pieces. Taking inspiration from the best part of a Manitoba summer, the lake coaster set features four quintessential lake scenes engraved on Baltic Birch and offered in one of three stains – with 20 per cent of the proceeds from each set sold donated to LWF! Visit zealousdecor's website to order your lake coasters today.

Beautiful Mess Studios for LWF

Multi-media artist Gail Bacosa-Puhawan creates beautiful bathymetric maps of Manitoba lakes using cut paper, with relative depths illustrated by use of gradients of blue cardstock. These pieces come framed and would make a great addition to your home or cottage. Plus, they make great gifts! A portion of sales from her Lake Winnipeg piece will be donated to LWF. (Connect with Gail on Instagram, or visit her website to place your order today!)

Jill Patrick for LWF

Artisan Jill Patrick uses Baltic Birch, card stock and matte board to create laser-cut bathymetric maps of Lake Winnipeg and lakeside communities. These stunning pieces are framed and ready to display in your home or cottage. They also make great gifts! For each piece sold, a donation will be made to the Lake Winnipeg Foundation. Visit Jill's website to order yours today!
