Art & Science:
A portrait of Lake Winnipeg

Bill Pura has spent years photographing Lake Winnipeg, and Lake Winnipeg Foundation director Alexis Kanu has spent years studying the lake's deterioration. Come see Pura's moving photographs, and learn how art and science combine to produce a unique portrait of our beloved lake.

6:00PM Dinner includes coffee/tea | 7:45PM First Fridays tour of the Exchange District art galleries and studios

PER PERSON $20 (incl. TAX & GRATUITY) | Call 204-697-7069 to reserve your spot | 237 McDERMOT AVE. | Powered by MTS | Missing Brothers NEWS CAFÉ

LWF's executive director Alexis Kanu is participating in First Fridays in the Exchange, a weekly tradition that encourages people to explore the galleries, shops and culture of Winnipeg's historic Exchange district.

Join her and artist William Pura for Lake Winnipeg: Art, Science, and You to learn how art and science can collaborate to inspire change.

When: Friday, Aug. 7, 6 to 9 p.m.

Where: 237 McDermot (The Winnipeg Free Press News Café)

Cost: $20 plus tax (tickets include dinner, a moderated talk and a guided tour of galleries and studios); please reserve in advance by calling 204-697-7069

Note: we'll be ending our night at Gurevich Fine Art (200-62 Albert St) for the opening of William Pura's new photographic exhibit, Inland Sea. The show opens at 7 p.m. and will remain at the gallery until Aug. 29. A portion of proceeds of sales from the exhibit will be donated to LWF!
