How do you solve a problem like Lake Winnipeg?

The poster is enclosed in a blue rounded rectangular border. On the left, the text "How do you solve a problem like Lake Winnipeg?" is written in blue, with "Lake Winnipeg?" in a larger, bold font. To the right is a blue silhouette of Lake Winnipeg. Below the main text, it says "This World Water Day, we are asking how we can ensure a healthy future for Lake Winnipeg." Further down, it invites people to join a debate on "TUESDAY, MARCH 22, FROM 6:30 – 8:00 PM" at the "Winnipeg Free Press Café, 237 McDermot Ave., Winnipeg." At the bottom, it notes the event is co-hosted by IISD and LWF. Logos for IISD and LWF are at the bottom left and right respectively.

IISD LWF LAKE WINNIPEG FOUNDATION

This World Water Day, we are asking how we can ensure a healthy future for Lake Winnipeg.

What does a healthy Lake Winnipeg look like? What should the next provincial government be doing to protect it? How can Winnipeggers get involved?

Join us for a lively debate on Tuesday, March 22, from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. at the Winnipeg Free Press Café, 237 McDermot Ave., Winnipeg.

Co-hosted by LWF and the International Institute for Sustainable Development.
