How do you solve a problem like Lake Winnipeg? Join us on World Water Day to find out!

March 22 is World Water Day and we're marking the occasion by co-hosting a free event in Winnipeg with the International Institute for Sustainable Development.

We've invited a diverse trio of experts to discuss what a healthy future looks like for Lake Winnipeg, what Manitoba's next government should do protect our shared waters, and how our actions can affect what happens next.

More information is available here. Please considering join us on Tuesday, March 22, from 6:30 - 8 p.m. at the Winnipeg Free Press Café, 237 McDermot Ave., Winnipeg. And, if you can't be there in person, keep updated through Twitter - we'll be live-tweeting all night!

Stay tuned to learn how provincial candidates will address the challenges facing Lake Winnipeg

Manitoba's election campaign has officially begun – and Lake Winnipeg needs to be on the agenda.

To help voters make an informed decision when casting a ballot on April. 19, we will be reaching out to all provincial candidates to learn more about how they plan to address the challenges facing Lake Winnipeg. We'll be sharing the responses we receive online in the coming weeks.

Thank you for your interest in the health of our great lake,

The LWF team
